Skiers, boarders may take flight at Bethel airport

By ALISON ALOISIO

Aircraft may not be the only things flying at the Bethel Airport this winter, if a newly-hatched idea for the annual Bethel Winterfest comes to fruition.

In recent years the Winterfest has featured a "rail jam" — a competition among snowboarders and skiers who gain speed on a snow hill/ramp and then jump and spin off of elements at the bottom.

Last year it took place at "Festival Plaza" at Bethel Station. Snow for the hill (which doubled as a "snowcano") was provided through a combination of the town's street snow removal and Sunday River Resort snowmaking.

At Monday's selectmen's meeting the board learned from Robin Zinchuk, executive director of the Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce, that the Sunday River Ski and Snowboard Club would like to have a U.S. Ski and Snowboard Association-sanctioned rail jam at the same site on Feb. 15. Zinchuk said she hoped

Bethel businesses wanting roadside signs must wait on state approval

By ALISON ALOISIO

The battle between the Town of Bethel and the Maine Department of Transportation over the implementation of the town's amended directional sign ordinance continued this week, this time with the town accusing MDOT of dragging its feet on approving the ordinance.

As a result, said town officials, businesses wanting new signs that comply with the amendments must wait longer.

"We're clearly not open for business," said Bethel selectman Peter Southam at Monday's board meeting. "Perhaps we should drive down and remove Gov. LePage's sign on the Maine Turnpike. It's a lie. If they wanted us to be open for business they would approve this in the original manner."

Bethel administers business directional signs on state roads through a memorandum of understanding with MDOT.

In mid-July MDOT, citing the time Bethel was taking to get its recently-amended sign ordinance "operational," stepped in and put up temporary roadside directional signs on Route 2 for

Eagle Scout project will cover Hanover

By MARIA HAGIGEORGES HOLLOWAY

Fourteen-year-old Keith Crockett-Harrington of Bethel is on his way to becoming an Eagle Scout after hosting a successful barbecue fundraiser on the grounds of the Hanover Town Office last week.

With the support of the Gardner Roberts Memorial Library, the Town of Hanover, and generous community donations, the dedicated Boy Scout from Bethel Troop 565 is about to kick off a project toward earning his Eagle Scout status.

Eagle Scout is the highest rank attainable in the Boy Scouts of America program. It requires earning 21 merit badges and demonstrating Scout Spirit by planning, organizing, and managing a major service project. Keith is just a couple of merit badges and a project away from attaining Eagle status. Hanover will enjoy the fruits of his labor — a public covered picnic shelter in the center of town.

Nearly 100 people from Hanover and the surrounding towns attended the barbecue fundraiser Sept. 8 under a large tent erected between the Gardner Roberts Memorial Library and the Town Office. Breezes blew and the fall-like air was quite brisk, but that did not stop the crowd from having a wonderful evening. Through monetary donations from those who attended, combined with proceeds from a raffle that evening, Keith exceeded his goal of raising $1,000 toward the project.

The 16' by 24' picnic shelter will be situated between the Town Office and the library on Ferry Road, adjacent to Route 2, and will be used for town gatherings and other year round public events.

How did Keith happen to choose Hanover for his project?

MDOT project bypasses Planning Board directive

By ALISON ALOISIO

Claiming the Maine Department of Transportation ignored a directive from the Bethel Planning Board to get local approval for an MDOT building project, and has also damaged an abutter's land, selectmen Monday decided to contact state representatives and the Maine Department of Environmental Protection for help.

Town Manager Jim Doar told selectmen Monday that MDOT had started a construction project at its maintenance lot on Route 2.

He said that on Jan. 30 the agency had submitted a building permit application, and the town decided MDOT should meet with the Planning Board to determine if a full site plan review was warranted.

MDOT was placed on the Feb. 27 agenda, but did not provide information requested ahead of the meeting and was subsequently removed from that agenda, Doar said.

MDOT was on the agenda for the March 27 meeting and was told a site plan review was needed, he said.

"MDOT ignored that and just started building," Doar said. "This is an issue because of a lot of things they're doing out there that they shouldn't be doing."

THANK YOU TO BROOKS BROS.

To the editor:

Since 1917, the Brooks family has been supplying tools, repairs and good will to all of us living in Bethel. They were amongst the first "people from around here" that gave us the support and made the transition from Boston to Bethel as easy as it could be.

Because we were a new business in town, we didn't know who we should call to do just about anything or how to create a business existence in town. The Brooks family was the first to set us up as an account, and without even having to ask for it, they gave us a line of credit. As every business trying to get started, we had our share of ups and downs and never once did Brooks Brothers ever refuse to help us. I went in to the store one day to get something, for the life of me I can't remember what the heck it was, and Jack asked if I wanted to put it on our account. "What account?" I asked him. "I didn't set up an account." Jack answered that he had set it up for us. I thanked him of course and he said to me, "Why not? I know where you are. We'll be fine."

That was the beginning of a relationship that has lasted over 25 years. Now it has come to my attention that after almost one hundred years the Brooks family will no longer be at that old rickety-floored building that has become as familiar to me as my own home. They will no longer operate the company that came to our rescue, whether at the Backstage or at our home and did so with as much dispatch as possible.

I wish the new owners much luck. I'm compelled to tell you that you have some huge shoes to fill. I hope that you treat your customers with the same dedication and respect that has been the "coat of arms" of the Brooks family.

I want to very much be amongst the first to wish the Brooks family all the luck in the world and to offer my heartfelt thank you for the wonderful resource you have been to all of us since 1917.

God bless and I hope you have a great time with your new found freedom of not being tied, as like an umbilical cord, to a business that you all gave 100 percent to.

Lal and I know the feeling ... and the wonderful feeling of freedom. Hooray for you!

DONATE SKI EQUIPMENT

To the Editor:

The Bethel Outing Club Ski Sale is just about a month away. This year it will be held at the Gould Academy Field House on Friday, Oct. 25, from 6 to 9 p.m., and Saturday, Oct. 26 from 9 a.m. to noon. There will be a range of alpine, snowboarding and Nordic equipment from which to choose. Ski shops from around Northern New England will be there to sell skis, snowboards, boots, poles, helmets and other skiing accessories. There will also be a section for used equipment sold by local skiers. This is where we need your help. Having affordable equipment in good condition is an important part of making skiing accessible to more people in the community. We would really like to grow this section of the ski sale.

If you have gently used equipment you would like to sell, you have a couple of options for getting it ready to sell in the ski sale. The first option is to bring it to the Telstar Ski Shed, behind the gym at Telstar, on three different Saturday mornings from 9 to 10 a.m. The three Saturdays are Sept. 28, Oct. 5 and Oct. 19. Tags will be available there. The second option is to pick up sale tags at the Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce or at True North Adventureware. You can get up to four tags free and then every tag after the fourth is 25 cents. You put the price you would like for the item on the tag and bring it to the Gould Field House starting at 3 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 25. You may also get tags at the ski sale that Friday, but the cost is 50 cents per tag. The equipment is subject to a consignment fee. On Saturday, if used equipment has not been sold, it will be marked down 50 percent. If you would not like your equipment sold for less on Saturday, you must pick it up by 9 p.m. on Friday night.

We hope to see you at the sale in October. It is a great way to see friends, find new equipment and celebrate the start of a new ski season! Proceeds from the sale will go to supporting Bethel Outing Club whose mission is to promote Nordic skiing and family oriented activities in the outdoors. The BOC helps to provide ski equipment to cross country ski programs in the local schools and free or low cost coaching to youth and adults in the area. Details about the sale, the club and membership are available at www.bethelouting.org or www.facebook.com/betheloutingclub.

'What was your most difficult problem?'

My first experience with an uncontrolled fire took place when I was a little girl.

But I never forgot it. For a few years after Miss Fan was left a widow with five children under ten, she continued to live on at Brick End, our old house that had been in the family for five generations. It had a wood burning furnace, a little stove in the laundry used only on Mondays to heat water, a cook stove in the kitchen and eight fireplaces. The one in the dining room was the heart of the house. It burned four-foot logs and never went out all winter. At night the green backlog was smothered in ashes. In the morning, they were raked away and a dry log put in front. In this room was a mahogany Chippendale table that our father had bought when he established his first home in the little Caswell house. It had been a captain's table on a ship; it could easily seat twenty-four for holiday feasts and all the time it served a variety of uses. Around it we ate our meals, sat munching apples while doing our lessons, cut out dresses, wrapped packages, built projects; always accompanied by a blazing fire.

One twenty-below-zero morning, Miss Fan, melting snow on the kitchen stove to get water to thaw our frozen pipes, kept muttering, "I can't seem to get this house warm." Suddenly she smelled smoke and raced into the dining room. T. Richard, aged eight, his red hair flaming, was proudly prancing up and down before a roaring fire and chanting, "I can build a fire that will keep my mother warm." He had gone to the furnace cellar, brought up armloads of dry kindling wood and filled the fireplace full. Edward A., aged ten, with already a sense of the link of the past to the present, shouted, "You'll burn down my great-grandfather's lovely house," and he ran for a pail of snow.

"Put on Paul's and Stanley's outside clothes and keep them in the kitchen," Miss Fan ordered me as she ran to telephone our nearest neighbor, one mile away. He was sure to be home as he had no regular job. He ran a cider mill, a shingle mill and was always tinkering up some new device for a hay-baling machine or rebuilding engines. Thus our Protestant ethic neighbors, though always glad to have his help, considered him a ne're-do-well.

"Walter was home and he's coming to help us," Miss Fan reported. T. Richard continued his marching and chanting. Edward A. passed Miss Fan the snow pail and then ran upstairs to check the fireplace in the chamber over the dining room. There were no dampers and in winter we closed this fireplace with a wooden board. The woodwork was very hot but no flames there, only a few wisps of smoke. I had followed him upstairs but he shouted me away. "You're no help, go back and tend your little brothers."

Back I went, little brothers were still in the chairs they had been left in, so small and so swaddled in clothing they couldn't have moved if they had dared to. To be sure, I was of no help and thus the first to see Walter come galloping into the yard with old Peachblossom. She was a bony, thin, swaybacked, aged mare of indeterminate breeding; white with here and there a black spot. Gray and white horses usually have black skin but hers had no pigment so the spots around her eyes and nose were pink. "Walter's here," I shouted. Edward A. ran out and grabbed Peachblossom as Walter raced into the house. He took one look through the dining room door and directed Miss Fan to go and get all her washtubs. When she came back he had ripped down some heavy portieres which we always hung over a side hall to the side brick end door which we did not use in winter. He kicked away the sandbags and had the door open. He grabbed the fire tongs, put pieces of blazing wood into the tubs and dumped them out the door. Soon the fire was out; no real damage had been done. He helped Miss Fan finish thawing the pipes. Paul and Stanley were released from their encumbering garments, and we all sat down around the table and had a bowl of beef stew. Then Walter inspected the chimney.

"It probably would have burned out with no trouble anyway," he said. "These old chimneys were built to stand a lot of fire." He brushed aside lightly Miss Fan's offer to pay him saying, "It was nothing, always glad to help a neighbor."

The fire incident became a family story. In later years people would ask, "Were you frightened? Was T. Richard punished? Did you still keep the fire going day and night? Was there much smoke damage to the room? Did the horse suffer from her mad mile dash?" Only the last question had an answer: No. Edward A. had put the welfare of an animal above his love for the house. He had put her in a stable stall, rubbed her down with a bran sack, made her hot mash. She lived on. I remember no moralizing nor discussion of values to be learned, but we had acquired some concepts. One did not judge by appearances. Peachblossom's speed and stamina had certainly belied her looks. Life, even of an old unimportant horse was more to be tended to than an inanimate house. Whenever we heard anyone speak disparagingly of Walter because of his lack of ambition, we remembered that he had come to help us when we needed him and had taken no pay and that it mattered not that his way of life was different from ours. Though only nine, I had a glimmer that my mother had a quality that always elicited a positive response.

People attending last week's BBQ eat under a tent by the library. (M. Hagigeorges Holloway)

"My mom, Kelly Harrington, works at the Town Hall in Hanover and my brother, Kory, and sister, Victoria, and I spend a lot of time swimming at Howard Pond. I also mow lawns for the town. And we are all good friends with 'Miss Peggy.'" Peg Susbury of Rumford and Hanover is the librarian at the Gardner Roberts Memorial Library located next to the town hall.

"I knew Miss Peggy's temporary plastic tent by the library was not working so swift. Sometimes the wind takes it down and the snow destroys it," Keith said. The tent is used for library events and other town functions, so Keith wanted to build a sturdy, permanent picnic shelter for the town to enjoy. On completion of the project, Keith will be able to go to the table to become an Eagle Scout.

He has been in Scouts since he was 5 years old. He achieved the highest honor of Arrow of Light as a Cub Scout. His mother was his den leader for many years. His current Scout Master, Dean Richmond of Mason Township, and Assistant Scout Master, Dr. Tom DeLuca of Hanover, are guiding and supporting him through the project.

Keith described the project's inception.

"The first person to step forward was Steve Pelletier of Hanover," he said.

A builder himself, Pelletier helped get the project off the ground. He met with Keith to hear his ideas and drew up the plans for the structure. He gathered estimates for the cost of supplies, which will run about $3,000 of which a portion has been donated by Western Maine Supply of Bethel.

Matt Dyer of Newry, and a Colony Development builder, volunteered to oversee the project. The building permit has been obtained and a contribution of $1,500 from the Town of Hanover, combined with a matching $1,500 donation from the Gardner Roberts Memorial Library, will pay for the remaining supplies.

More than $1,000 additionally were raised from the event to purchase crushed rock, additional miscellaneous supplies, and food to feed the work crew throughout the duration of the project.

"It will be an all-volunteer work crew," said Keith. "We need about 15 to 20 people. The work will start as soon as possible and we plan to be finished by Columbus Day weekend, just in time for the library's Annual Fall Festival. Next week we will begin marking out and driving in the posts. Scouts who are helping with the project include my brother, Kory Crockett-Harrington, Dylan Richmond of Mason Township, Dakota Albert of Bethel and Hanover and Austin Bear from Hanover. We are looking for more volunteers to help."

"It has been amazing for me to watch Keith gain confidence and a leadership role in such a short time," said Kelly. "He is learning to believe in himself and rightly so."

Susbury, long time friend of the Harringtons, said she has watched Keith grow from a quiet boy to a confident young man. "This project has given Keith the opportunity to grow and expand his horizons. He started with an idea, developed a plan, and has the drive and vision with an end result. That's quite a task for a 14-year old," she said.

There were also many donations of goods and services, which contributed to the success of the fundraiser. The tent was donated by Neil Olson of Olson's Tent Rental in East Bethel. Gordon Breidenbach of Newry, and chef at the Phoenix House and Well, and Ellie Andrews of Bethel were the "grillmasters." Bustar Chase of Bryant Pond sliced potatoes on the spot and served up hand-made warm potato chips throughout the evening which were quite popular with the crowd! The food was donated by Les Otten of Greenwood, and North Center Foods, of Augusta. Keith and his brother, Kory, and sister, Victoria made a delicious home made coleslaw, and their grandmother, Suzy Harrington, made pork, maple syrup, baked beans and rolls.

Anyone interested in volunteering to help with the building of the picnic shelter may contact Keith at 207-824-4347. Donations are still being accepted for the project. Checks can be made payable to the "Gardner Roberts Memorial Library", Attention: Keith's Project, and may be dropped off in person at the library or Town Office, or mailed to the library at P.O. Box 64, Hanover, ME 04237.

the town could again truck snow removed from the streets to the site. The BACC could supplement that with snow removed from the airport.

She said no snowcano or other unusual snow construction is planned for this year.

If a snow hill were built for just a railjam, the USASA would provide insurance for the event itself, she said. However, it would have to be leveled the next day, she said.

Zinchuk said she didn't want that to happen.

"I would love to use the hill for sledding for the local kids," she said, just as the snowcano hill had been used in previous years.

Zinchuk asked if the town could provide insurance for that activity, as it has before.

Town Manager Jim Doar said he had checked on that, and the insurer said "no," because the activities are not town-sanctioned and do not take place on town property.

"I don't know if that's a fatal obstacle," Doar said. "It probably is," replied Zinchuk.

But then Randy Autrey of the Bethel Airport Authority had an idea.

"How about the airport?" he asked. "You wouldn't have to move the snow."

He said an open area away from the runway has been used in the past for snowmobile races and other public events, and the rail jam would likely be a permissible activity.

"That changes everything," said Zinchuk. "It really does. We hadn't even thought of that."

Selectmen agreed to have Doar look into the option with the insurance company.

That included, he said, paving part of the driveway on an abutter's land and "dumping storm water from pavement directly onto the abutters' land and killing trees."

Doar asked the board if the town should pursue violation proceedings.

He said if any planning board wishes to review an MDOT application, law requires the agency be notified within 45 days of MDOT's initial notification to the town of its plan.

With the delay resulting from the February meeting issue, that technically didn't happen, Doar said, and the town attorney said the town likely would not win the battle.

Still, said Doar, "I feel it's worth the fight. There's a reason we have site plan review," noting it gives abutters a chance to have input. And, he said, "We make everyone else go through it."

Had a review taken place in this case, he said, a stormwater drainage plan would likely have been required and the effect of added pavement might also have been examined.

Doar added that the abutter had talked with MDOT about the impacts to his property, and the agency said it could buy the land.

When the abutter said he had no interest in selling, according to Doar, MDOT said it could take the land by eminent domain.

"That's not acceptable. This is a state agency that should not be acting this way," said Doar.

Selectmen were reluctant, however, to pursue action with little hope of success. Doar also acknowledged the move would likely be of little help to the abutter.

But selectman Pat Carter said the board "should voice our displeasure. They should know how we feel. They're getting too big for their britches."

Selectmen also agreed the town should contact local legislative representatives and another state agency, the Maine Department of Environmental Protection.

MDOT responds

Contacted Wednesday, MDOT spokesman Ted Talbot said the agency is not required to go through local planning processes. The Bethel site plan review requires a nine-page application, he said, and MDOT does not have the resources during the construction season to commit to such a process.

Regarding the abutter issue, Talbot said MDOT is now negotiating with the abutter to buy additional land for expansion at the lot. The paving took place at least 15 years ago, he said, and any potential runoff problems would not be recent developments.

Some Weeks News; Some Weeks History The Moses Masons and their Houses

Capt Hugh D. Mason came to Boston from England in 1634.

Moses M. Mason, (Moses 1) (? - 1775), was a great-grandson of Capt Hugh Mason who came to Wadsworth, Mass. Moses and Lydia (Knapp) Mason settled at Newton, where four children were born, then to Sherborn, where four more were born, then to Dublin, where two more were born, and in 1795 his widow with her son and his family "started on a northern trek and settled at Bethel, Maine." Practically all of the Masons in Bethel, Gilead, Albany, Norway, Harrison, and in Berlin, Lancaster, and Gorham, N. H., are their descendants. Source: "Descendants of Capt Hugh D. Mason" by Edna Warren Mason.

Moses Mason, Jr., (Moses 2) (1757-1836), son of Moses 1, served as a soldier in the Revolution (at Bennington) and in 1799 moved (or arrived with) his family and widowed mother from Dublin, N.H., to Bethel. His mother (a widow) came with them. Moses 2 built (with some help I'm sure) the house in Bethel now known as the Norseman Inn.

Moses Mason (also Jr.), (Moses 3), (1785-died young) was the third child of Moses 2 and wife Eunice Ayer.

Moses Mason (Jr.) (Moses 4), (1789-1866) was born in Dublin and came to Bethel with his family in 1799. Moses 4 was the one to become a doctor and serve in Congress; he built a house at Bethel Hill in 1813 that is now the Bethel Historical Society museum. In the Wikipedia History of Dublin, N.H., Moses Mason, Jr., physician and US Congressman, is listed as one of the notable people of Dublin (along with Mark Twain, author and summer resident for two years).

Moses Ayers Mason, (Moses 5), (1826-1904) was a grandson of Moses 2; he was a bachelor who was the last Mason to occupy the house now known as The Norseman. He sold the house to Charles Ryerson in 1894.

The Mason Houses

Today there are three prominent Mason houses: First is the one built by Moses 2 in 1800 known as The Norseman. Second is the smaller town house built in 1813 by Moses 4 and is today's museum. Third is the house built by Ayers Mason probably soon after 1825 when he married Eunice Hale Mason, widow of his brother Charles.

The first Mason house (1800), for the last 50 years The Norseman, has been described by Ruby Clark Eldridge who lived there as a girl at the time Moses Ayers Mason owned the farm. The white painted farmhouse faced the road to Gilead (which then ran between the Norseman barn and the Briar Lee Inn. *The east side faced the road to Newry; but the front door with its long stone step centrally located faced south (faced the river). The door opened into a good sized hall with stairs. At the right as one entered was the parlor and at the left mother's bedroom and mine. Upstairs the east room was for guests and the west was bedroom for my two brothers. It was a two and a half story house. *William Rogers Chapman had the town reposition the Gilead road to its present location.

Uncle Moses had built a brick furnace for warmth and baking, which was in the kitchen located in the Ell which then was only one and a half stories. The barn with the big "M" was built about 1882.

John and Dale Cheney who have owned The Norseman for the last 24 years are the thirteenth owners. During the 1894-1910 period (the Ryerson's ownership) the place was known as the Riverside Hotel after them William Rogers Chapman, owner from 1911-1918, called it Riverside Farm and from about 1930 until 1961 it was known as Bethaven. For more see the Bethel Journals - The Masons and Their Houses.

Dr. Moses and Agnes Straw Mason's home on Broad Street (1813) has been dealt with extensively by the Bethel Historical Society and one should refer to the Society's website. Dr. and Mrs. Mason had no children and so that they were the only actual Masons to live there.

The Ayers Mason* house on the Middle Interval Road (now Sunset Farm) was built by Ayers Mason (and others) after his marriage in 1825 - their first child was born in 1827 - so I'm guessing that the house was built about that time. This house stayed in the Mason family until 1943 - the longest Mason ownership of the three houses. From all angles appears to be a copy of the Mayville farm house including the front door facing south and the side door being the main entrance. *Ayers Mason was the youngest son of Moses 2; he was born in Bethel 1800. He lived to be 90.

The Ayers Mason family had a number of interesting connections to other Bethel personalities. Two of them are: Ayers and Eunice Mason's daughter Maria married Clark S. Edwards - whose photo is currently on display in the Maine State Museum as Col. Edwards was commander of the 5th Maine Regiment at the Battle of Gettysburg. The other connection is William Wallace Mason, son of Ayer; he was a partner with Chaunc-

SIGNS

the Black Diamond Steak House.

A July 10 letter from an MDOT attorney outlining the agency's decision also said Bethel had not yet sought required written approval from the MDOT commissioner for the ordinance amendments.

In a followup letter the next day, the attorney said that when the town had a contract in place with a sign company to make business signs, the ordinance would be operational and the temporary Black Diamond signs would come down in three days.

Before the Labor Day weekend, the town took down old signs for other area businesses in anticipation of new signs going up.

At Monday's selectmen's meeting Town Manager Jim Doar said contracts with signmakers were finalized Sept. 3 and sent to MDOT.

But Doar said he was then told by MDOT's Chip Kelley in an e-mail Sept. 6 that although the MDOT Legal Department had reviewed the ordinance, the document now needed to be sent to the MDOT commissioner for approval.

"When the approval from the Commissioner is received, I will contact the Region 3 office in Dixfield and schedule the timely removal of the directional signs that were installed by MaineDOT," Kelley's e-mail was quoted by Doar as saying.

"Additionally, the department will send a letter stating its position regarding the Bethel sign ordinance. The department will also send duplicate originals of the sign agreement that will need to be signed by both the Town of Bethel and the MaineDOT Commissioner." The documents would be sent no later than Sept. 11, Doar was told.

Doar said he had sent the amended ordinance to MDOT for review in July, about the same time the department said it would put up the temporary Black Diamond signs.

As part of the most recent exchange, Doar said, the town's attorney contacted MDOT and noted its July letter had not made approval for the ordinance to become operational conditional on the commissioner's permission.

But a DOT attorney reiterated the ordinance approval was pending with the commissioner.

The ordinance documentation had not been received by Monday, and two phone calls each since then from Doar and CEO Jeff Warden to MDOT have gone unanswered, Doar said.

"Given the fact they were concerned with how slowly we were moving to begin with, it's infuriating," Doar told selectmen.

He said that earlier this year an MDOT official had been involved as a special town committee crafted the amended ordinance, and final approval by the state should have been "perfunctory." MDOT had said then it respected home rule, according to Doar, and although the changes would have to be approved by the agency, typically the only type of amendments that would prevent approval were more permissive ones.

Said selectman Don Bennett, "It's very sad now because we have people who do want signs, who have been waiting patiently and quietly, and we can't issue anything to start the work to help the people who need signs because the state will not respond to us. They're not hurting us, they're hurting the people who want these signs. You would think with all the rhetoric that comes out of there about being open for business that someone would get off their duff and review this and give us an answer."

"It sounds retaliatory to me," said selectman Pat Carter.

The board agreed that the town should contact the area's legislative representatives, and possibly the governor, about the issue.

Doar said that so far only two businesses have applied for a new highway directional sign, and the Black Diamond is not one of them.

I was looking for "Linnie" Abbot. I am under the impression all the answers are correct. This Trivia question sparked a lot of interest, especially from all involved in this profession. I will check into trying to get more of the history and hopefully a write up about this to be published in the Citizen.

The footings have been poured for the new town office on the Gore Road. By the time you read this, frost walls may have been set. The recent rain has delayed the work. The building itself is a modular structure that is in production at KBS Building Systems in South Paris. Building delivery will be early October with anticipated move-in early November.

There have been very few Greenwood Planning Board meetings this summer. Town Manager Kim Sparks said the reason is that there have been few applications submitted for building permits this summer. Her records show that last year there were 41 building permits issued with about $4,200 in fees received by the Town. This year only 16 building permits have been issued and $800 in fees received. This goes against the national trend since the New York Times indicates the housing recovery is growing stronger.

The Greenwood Highway Dept. recently did some asphalt patching on the Greenwood Road. Thanks, guys. It helps.

Free hazardous waste collection day will be Sept. 21, 9 to 11:30, at the SAD 44 bus garage, lower Main Street in Bethel.

On that same day there will be a rabies clinic at the Norway Fire Station from 9 to 11. $10 for a rabies vaccine. An additional $25 for microchipping.

Final Friday fish fry of the season Sept. 27 from 3 to 6 p.m. at the Howe Hill Road fire station.

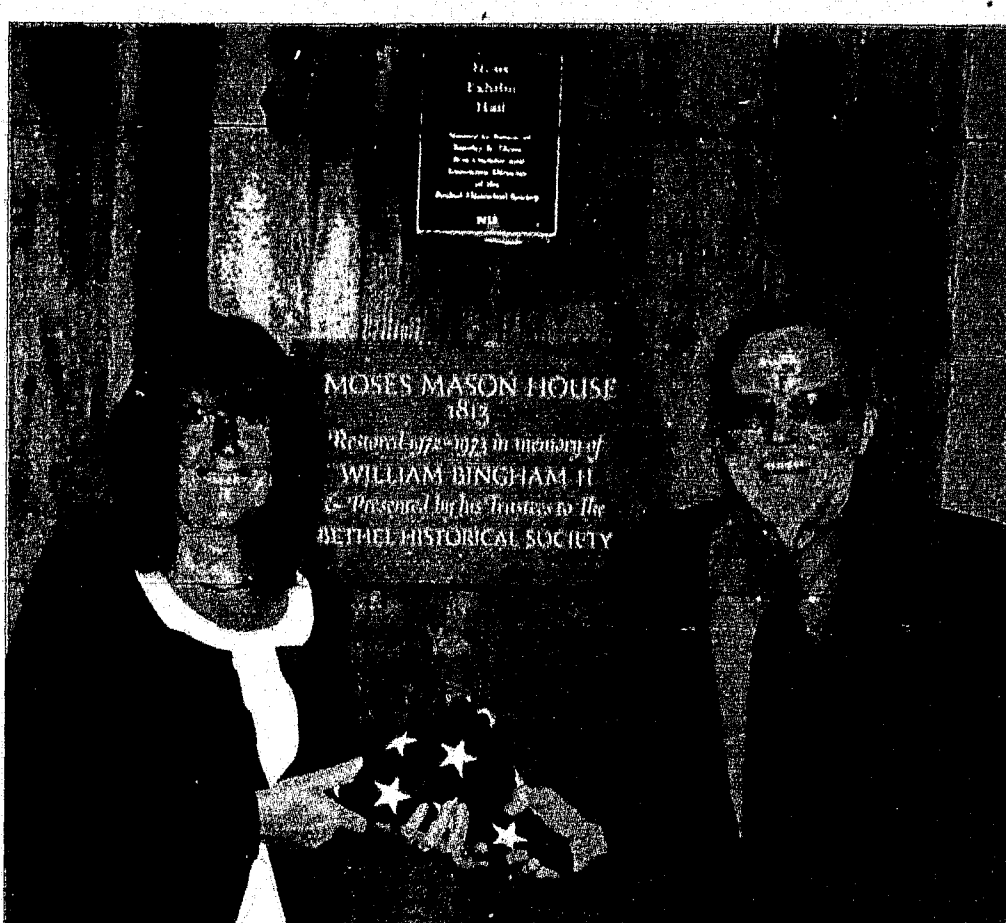

The autumn equinox is this Sunday, Sept. 22. We have two equinoxes - spring and autumn. This is when the earth's equator passes the center of the sun. At this time the tilt of the earth's axis is inclined neither away from nor towards the sun. Of course, in the southern hemisphere it is the spring equinox. Given the weather recently, it seems we are a bit topsyturvy anyway. Last week there were frosts in low areas on Monday morning. By Wednesday, it was 92 degrees in the afternoon. It will all settle down eventually as it always does. Please send news to staich16@gmail.com.

Last Sunday was a beautiful day. The rain let up and we had a chance to get out to do some projects. One of them was to go to Mountain Greenery and pick up some fall mums.

My brother, Steve McLain, stopped by the house Saturday and dropped off my Blue Ribbon from the AHAME Autumnfest Horse Show in Skowhegan.

Yes, I won a Blue Ribbon at the Horse Show in Skowhegan last weekend. I don't have a horse but my nephew, Brad McLain, and his wife, Carole Mason, have one. They entered my sour pickles in the Pickle Throwdown and the pickles received a blue ribbon. The judge loves sour pickles and these are sour.

Mary Tyler still has some hummingbirds hanging around her fall flowers. We have seen some here, also. We still have our feeder out, but they visit the phlox quite a lot.

Lise McLain attended the Senior Club meeting at the Funky Red Barn last week. She also had a chance to visit with Canadian cousins at her brother, Andre Dupont's house in Gorham, N.H. They all went out to dinner at a restaurant.

It was a very busy week last week! I attended the two day election conference at Sunday River on Tuesday and Wednesday all day long. Town Clerks and Registrars are required to complete training every two years. I worked in the town office on Tuesday evening and there was a selectmen's meeting on Wednesday night. On Thursday, I worked at the SAD 44 Adult Education Office most of the day. The rest of the time was spent getting ready for the Gilead Historical Society's Annual Meeting this Saturday, Sept. 21. When I retired this past spring, someone asked if I'd have enough things to keep me busy. When they ask me now, I just tell them that I have not had time to find out yet! When did I ever have time to work!

Gilead Historical Society The Annual Meeting is this Saturday, Sept. 21. There will be a pot luck lunch at 1 p.m. at the Town Hall. The business meeting will follow. Members of the public are invited to attend the lunch and are welcome to stay for the meeting if they wish. We hope to have a good turnout. Just bring a food item to share. We will be discussing what we will be doing at the annual event in June next year, since it will be our 10th Anniversary.

Got any news?

As I travel back and forth to school I notice how quickly the leaves are turning! I think it is going to be a nice foliage season.

Crystal McGuire and son Carter spent the weekend with her grandmother, Irene Anderson as they were up to attend the 60th anniversary party for Alberta and Edward White Sunday.

Sunday, the folks at the Albany Church had a retirement celebration for Jackie Gammon, the Pastor's wife, who just retired from Wal-Mart.

Margaret Barton attended the Senior Citizen gathering at the Funky Red Barn on Wednesday.

The Hunts Corner Road is closed to through traffic as of Sept. 16.

Saturday, Sept. 21, Norma Salway will have a book signing at Maine Line Products. This is her second book and is written about her years as a teacher. I am sure that there are many of her former students out there who would really enjoy a copy.

Have a great week everyone. God Bless.

RUMFORD HOSPITAL
Special Delivery

Early arrivals are no problem at Rumford Hospital's Special Delivery Family Birthing Center.

Peru resident Tanya McPherson's obstetrician was out of town when her son Forrest decided to arrive a month ahead of schedule. But things worked out just fine.

Said Daoud, M.D., who helped deliver Tanya's first son, Sawyer, was away when she went into labor with Forrest. But Stephanie Youd, M.D., a family medicine specialist at Elmore Dixfield Family Medicine, was covering for Dr. Daoud. As Sawyer's primary care provider, Dr. Youd already knew the McPherson family well.

"Dr. Youd was wonderful," Tanya says. "I've had two great experiences at Rumford Hospital. If you're looking for a nice, connected experience, Rumford Hospital is the place to go."

Tanya was also touched by care she experienced at the Special Delivery Family Birthing Center. "The nurses were amazing. I never had to think of anything I needed - they thought of it for me," she says. "The surroundings were warm, cozy and comforting."

as well as the Jordan River plus beautiful pictures of native flowers. I've seen this program and it is excellent. The time is 6 p.m. at the Christian Education Building of the First Congregational Church.

This Saturday, Sept. 21, the Andover Historical Society will be holding an open house at both of their locations, the main building on Elm Street in the village and at the East Andover School House from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. The school house is set up as a one-room school much as it was when students from East Andover attended there. At the main building the program will be farming and farm implements. If you have something to share, please bring it or if you have something you want to identify, the society will help you hone in on the original use of the item.

The People in Action Committee reports that 38 people were served at the recent free lunch. The program will continue throughout the fall and winter. The date for the October luncheon has not yet been set and as soon as it is available you will be notified in this column and by posters around town.

Helen Deanis recently hosted her daughter, Kim Moore and granddaughter, Brooke at her home on Roxbury Pond. While visiting they climbed up to one of the wind towers. Helen's comment, "It was hard, but I did it!" Way to go Helen!

The 10 a.m. Oct. 20 worship service at the First Congregational Church will feature The Messengers of Hope, a gospel quartet from Windham. The public is invited to an hour of great gospel music and message followed by a time of fellowship and refreshment.

It is Monday and they are predicting hard frost tonight here in the foothills. That means it is time to harvest any plants that aren't frost hardy. For us, that is already done for the most part. Actually, I mostly grow frost hardy plants anyway. I love broccoli, Brussels sprouts, kale, etc. Of course, I also love corn on the cob and that is not frost hardy, but that's how it goes. We have moved a few plants into the greenhouse for longer growing season, but Gertrude and Lefty don't like that because we close the door to keep the warmth in and the cold out. They prefer to hang in the green house and play. They will adapt. Of course, that won't last long, anyway because even with the greenhouse, the season doesn't last forever.

Even though they are mad they were closed out of the greenhouse, Lefty and Gertrude continue to be cute as all get out. They play all day except when they are sleeping in the old dog house out behind the garden or in the new doghouse that is currently Gertrude's sleeping quarters and will soon be both their house when the leaves leave the trees and Lefty can no longer roost in the tree. We will see how good they do sleeping in the doghouse all night until we let them out in the morning.

Saturday, Sept. 21, is the 2013 Harvest Festival and "Chowdah" Cook-off 9 to 4 on the Bethel Common. There will be arts, crafts, "chowdah" at area restaurants, apple pie contest baked potatoes and wood carving. Also there will be a book signing and lecture by David B. Field. FMI visit www.bethelharvestfest.com.

Monday, Sept. 23, bridge group will meet at the Waterford library at 6:30 p.m. All levels of bridge players are encouraged to come. A partner will be guaranteed. FMI call 583-2050.

Wednesday, Sept. 25 at 10 a.m. at the Waterford Library the book discussion group meets. All are welcome.

Wednesday, Sept. 25, 4:30 to 6:30, there is a community supper at the Bethel Alliance Church, 251 Walkers Mills Rd. There is no charge. FMI please call 824-2289.

Oct. 5 and 6 is Albany Improvement Association's Annual Yard Sale, 9 a.m. Albany Town House. To donate items please call 824-2568 or 824-2216.

Oct. 13 in Waterford the 14th Waterford Fall Foliage 5k Fitness Walk and 1 mile fun run will honor the memory of Tony Waldeier, long time educator in SAD 17. Money raised goes into the Tony Waldeier Scholarship Fund. As much as $1,000 is awarded to a senior from Waterford at Oxford Hill Comprehensive High School. FMI please call 583-2603 or 583-4611.

That does it for this week. Have a great first day of fall - Sept. 22. Enjoy the coming colors. To send in items, please call 739-9115.

By JOE BERNIER

No recent news from the Ladies Aid. I expect they are gearing up for the fall season, including a hunters' supper and a hunters' breakfast. I hope the breakfasts start soon.

The Upton Historical Society will meet Sunday, Sept. 22, 3 p.m. at the school.

The Letter B Notch Riders held their last meeting of the year Sunday, Sept. 8. There were not enough members at the meeting to plan and schedule a fall ride and club cookout. It was decided to have a ride and cookout early next year to kick off the riding season and give members an early, easy opportunity to sign up for 2014 membership.

The Upton Planning Board will meet Friday, Sept. 27, at the town office.

I have decided to wait a few weeks before starting my snow dance, as I do not yet have all my firewood in the shed.

I apologize to the people who read the Upton column (all six of you) for not getting a column in last week. It was because of a combination of computer issues and procrastination.

Please call 533-2010 or e-mail backstjoe@gmail.com with your news.

Woodstock Historical Society news

The Woodstock Historical Society held its monthly meeting on Saturday, Sept. 14 at the museum. New Officers were elected, President, Larry Bonney; Vice President, Wayne Howe; Treasurer, Paul Billings; Secretary, Vicky Billings; Trustee, Beth Emerson. The WHS members would like to thank the outgoing officers for their time and effort. Special thanks to Olive Risko, the outgoing President.

Our fundraisers have been a great success thanks to our hardworking members and everyone who bought tickets. The beautiful handcrafted bench made by Renee Pietla and Doug Vogel was won by Deb Campbell of Woodstock. Winner of Annie Crockett's quilt, Gert Friel of Woodstock. We are still taking your bottle donation at the Crazy Sisters Bottle Depot, just let them know it's for the WHS. Thank you to all that have helped supported us by buying tickets, giving us your bottles and volunteering. The WHS is still searching for assorted Eureka Year Books. If you have any yearbooks you would like to donate to the WHS so they can have a complete set for viewing, it would be greatly appreciated. The years needed are 1925, 1928 and 1929. Also, 1917 and prior, if any exist. Events to look forward to

On Saturday, Sept. 28, from 1 to 4 p.m., the Woodstock Historical Society and the Woodstock Fire Department will have a display of firefighting equipment. Outside, weather permitting, will be a Hunneman 247 "Fire King" 4, a hand pump tub pumping engine built in 1844. The Hunneman is quite rare and unique. Along with this wagon, a modern truck will be on display. Inside the museum will be a display of other firefighting equipment. This will take place at the museum on main street in Bryant Pond Village.

Saturday, Oct. 5, The Woodstock Historical Society Will help the Woodstock Fire Department kick off Fire Prevention Week and the Parade of Lights by opening the Museum from 6 to 7 p.m. We will have FREE hot chocolate and cider while it lasts. Baked goodies will be for sale. Weather permitting.

Saturday, Oct. 19, The Woodstock Historical Society will have crafts for sale at the Woodstock Craft Fair at the school on Rumford Avenue in Bryant Pond from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. We will have an array of crafts made by the members for sale along with merchandise from the Museum.

Next meeting: Saturday, Oct. 12 at 6 p.m. Come check us out!

Waterford road race

The leaves are giving hints of what's to come, which in Waterford means the 14th Waterford Fall Foliage 5K Road Race, 5K Fitness Walk and 1 Mile Fun Run. It will take place on Sunday, Oct. 13 in Waterford, starting at 11:30 for the 1 mile fun run and 12 noon for the 5K. The course is a challenging, out-and-back run or walk along the shores of Keoka Lake to South Waterford and the Sweden Road. Roads leading to the event will close at 11:20.

Registration for the 1 mile fun run is $5, and for the 5K it is $15 pre-registration and $20 on race day. The first 100 5K pre-registrants will receive a long sleeved T-shirt with the race logo.

This race has grown in number every year and is a fundraiser for the Tony Waldeier Scholarship Fund, which over the past years has given more than $35,000 in scholarships to Waterford students going on to further their education. If enough money is raised, the scholarships given are $1000.00 to all students from Waterford who apply. An award ceremony immediately follows the race, with medals and maple syrup given to the winners.

The Waterford/Harrison PTO sponsor a chili cook-off with free chili samples for all 5K racers, and in addition, sell hot dogs and baked goods for lunch for their fundraiser. Anyone interested in making a pot of chili to enter is welcome and should contact the Waterford/Harrison PTO.

Online registration is at www.active.com, with paper registration forms available as well. The event website is www.waterfordfall5k.com, and event e-mail is fallrunner@waterfordfall5k.com. For more information on the race or registration, call 583-2603, 583-4611 or 583-4405.

This event is a highlight of the fall season, and you are encouraged to come run, walk or just enjoy the race as a spectator. The race is held rain or shine!

Biathlon series in Norway

The Western Foothills Land Trust has offered biathlon competitions at Roberts Farm Preserve for the past three winters by borrowing air rifles and targets from the Southern Maine Biathlon Club. This year, thanks to Woodman's Sporting Goods in Norway and a private donor, the Trust has its own equipment with the goal of supporting a potential Western Maine Biathlon Club. Biathlon training is great for skiers and runners, and for those who enjoy target shooting.

The 2013 series at Roberts Farm Preserve, 64 Roberts Road, Norway will include one event each month: Oct. 27, Nov. 24, and Dec. 29 (the latter hopefully a ski event). Beginners are encouraged and welcomed! For these dry-land events we will offer 3k and 6k competitions. The 3k consisting of three 1k loops with two target rounds and a 6k competition with three 2k loops with two target rounds. No previous target shooting experience is required. Air Rifles will be provided. Competitors need to be able to run their course distances (3k or 6k) without walking. Note: Competitors 10 to 15 years of age MUST be accompanied at the target range by a parent.

Biathlon is the Winter Olympic sport combining rifle marksmanship with cross-country skiing. Biathlon, which means dual event, has its roots in Scandinavia and Finland. The earliest recorded biathlon competition took place in 1767 between "ski-runner companies" which guarded the Swedish-Norwegian border. In the late 1830s, the Finnish Army on skis, carrying rifles, and outnumbered 10 to one, routed the Russians from their border. The 1924 Olympic Winter Games in Chamonix, France included a military ski patrol race as a demonstration sport, but biathlon as a winter sport wasn't included as a competition until the 1960 Winter Olympics in Squaw Valley, Calif. In Maine, the Maine Winter Sports Center in Caribou is a world class Nordic skiing and biathlon venue that fosters the development of athletes training for Olympic level competition. Clubs, like the Southern Maine Biathlon Club, support young athletes locally to develop the skills and endurance needed to advance in the sport.

For all four events at Roberts Farm Preserve: registration (free this first season), target practice and safety review, run course review and warm up will be from 9 to 10:45. Competitors' meeting at 10:45. Competition will begin at 11. Safety is a very important part of Biathlon. Competitors will learn safe range procedures for handling the air rifle. In addition to local experts, we will have helpers from the Southern Maine Biathlon Club to provide safety training.

The Western Foothills Land Trust would like to thank Jim McBride and Woodman's Sporting Goods for their support of this program.

High School Football

Boothbay 32, Telstar 0; Sept. 13 – The game started late and it was downpouring. The field was a quagmire and on their homecoming night the Seahawks came to play. They came out strong and broke some long runs off in the first half of the game, amounting to a 25-0 Boothbay lead. Telstar's defense stiffened after the break and they only allowed one more touchdown the rest of the game. By that time the damage had already been done and although they fought hard the Rebels could not pull any closer and ended the game scoreless. The Rebels hope to put this one in the back of their minds, and to play tougher next week at home vs. Old Orchard Beach. – Zach Wheeler

OCEA-R meeting

The OCEA-R, Oxford County Education Association-Retired, will have their first fall meeting at the North Waterford Congregational Church on Sept. 20. From 10:30 to 11 there is an opportunity to sign in and socialize. The business meeting will be held at 11, lunch will be served at 12 noon and the program will begin at approximately 12:45. This month's program will be on Maine humor. The fundraiser is a yard sale. If you are a retired teacher or someone who worked for a school in any capacity, such as a custodian, bus driver, or cafeteria worker, please consider attending for a good time, a good meal, and the chance to discuss matters important to retired educators. We believe anyone who worked with young people in a school setting is part of the education community. If you plan to attend, please call 743-7677 to reserve lunch. This is to help the cooks know how much food to prepare. If you do not call, you will still be welcome.

AT lecture at BHS

On Saturday, Sept. 21, at 1:30 p.m., the Bethel Historical Society will sponsor a lecture and book signing by David B. Field, retired University of Maine professor of Forest Resources. Field will present an illustrated talk about the Appalachian Trail in Maine – as it is today and how it came to be. Author of the book "Along Maine's Appalachian Trail" (available that afternoon at a special, discounted price), he has maintained six miles of the Appalachian Trail for over 50 years and is credited with improving most of the 281-mile trail in Maine by taking it off logging roads and putting it in the woods.

A recent inductee into the Appalachian Trail Hall of Fame, David Field resides in Hampden but is a native of Madrid, a small but highly scenic township in Maine's western mountains. Often compared to the late Myron Avery, who worked to establish the Appalachian Trail in the 1930s, Field has served as an officer of the Maine Appalachian Trail Club and on the board of managers of the Appalachian Trail Conference. Following his lecture, which will take place in the Howe Exhibit Hall at the Mason House, he will be available to sign copies of his book. This free program is part of the Bethel Historical Society's 2013 Lecture Series, "Trails, Trials and Tourism: Capturing the Maine Experience," which is supported, in part, by a grant from the Maine Humanities Council. (Before or after this program, visitors may enjoy the Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce's Harvest Fest on the nearby Bethel Hill common.)

Founded in 1966, the Bethel Historical Society is the largest and most comprehensive historical organization in its region. With nearly 1,000 members, the Society fosters a sense of place – with a focus on western Maine and the White Mountain region of Maine and New Hampshire – by collecting, preserving, displaying and interpreting historically significant artifacts and documents for residents, visitors, students, and scholars. Through its exhibits, programs, events, and publications, the Society strives to make the region's history meaningful, accessible, and enjoyable. In 1974, the Society acquired the 1813 Broad Street residence of Dr. Moses Mason, which contains a period house museum, exhibit hall and research library. In 1999, the Society added the adjacent O'Neil Robinson House (1821) to its facilities for an expanded exhibits program, museum shop space, and administrative offices. For nearly fifty years, the Bethel Historical Society's wide-ranging achievements have been recognized by a number of state and national organizations.

High School Golf

Mt. Valley 6, Telstar 1; Sept. 10 – The golf team lost to Mt. Valley on Tuesday. Robert Crockett was the only Rebel to win his match as Robert shot a 57, his best score to date. Reggie Westleigh also scored in the 50s with a round of 57. The team is now 1-2 on the season. – Coach Jim Lunney

Oak Hill 5 ½, Telstar 1 ½; Sept. 16 – The Telstar golf team lost to Oak Hill on Monday. Ryan Bennett won his match and Robert Crockett and John Walker tied their matches. Telstar is 1-4 on the season and next travel to Lakewood to play Madison on Thursday, Sept. 19. – Coach Jim Lunney

High School Boys' Varsity Soccer

Winthrop 3, Telstar 0; Sept. 10 – The Rebels lost their home opener on Tuesday. The game was evenly matched until Winthrop broke the tie with 10 minutes left in the first half. Winthrop added 2 more goals in the second half to seal the Rebels fate. This was a tough loss for the team. We did not look as good as on Saturday. Despite the score the two teams appeared evenly matched. "We out shot them and won more free balls, but we couldn't catch a break and put it in the net." Nick Johnson, Cam Rothwell, Jeriah Edwards, Aaron Speakman, and Willis Stevens played great defense. – Coach Eliot

Mt. Abram 4, Telstar 1; Sept. 13 – The Rebel boys lost Friday night in what was a very wet game. Mt. Abram came out moving and passing around the Rebels and quickly got on the board. They were able to put two more goals in and led 3 to 0 at the half. The Rebels came back in the second half with a goal from Nick Conrad and played to a tie 1 to 1. It seemed like we could not mark up or win the ball during the first half. Mt. Abram moved in a pack and had no set offensive positioning. It was an effective strategy and by the time we adjusted we were too far behind to catch them. We changed our set up at half and began winning the ball. I was impressed with how we played the second half, but it wasn't enough. We will take this experience to the board and learn from our mistakes. Liam Gallagher, Willis Stevens, Aaron Speakman, and Nick Johnson stepped up their defensive play the second half and it really made a difference. – Coach Eliot

High School Boys' JV Soccer

Telstar vs. Mt. Abram, Sept. 13 – The Telstar JV Boys Soccer team played their first game of the season Friday night under the lights and in the pouring rain at Mt. Abram. The team played well with support from some Varsity players due to missing players which was a great help. The boys only played the first half due to dangerous field conditions from the growing puddles. There were some great scoring opportunities by Avry Griffin, Zach Stone, Nick Johnson, Eric Lowell, and Bronson Dean. Amazing defensive play from Willis Steven, Maverik Griffin, James Newkirk, and Mike LaForte. Luke Angvine made some nice saves in goal in the wet conditions with 10 saves allowing 3 goals. – Coach Mark Kenney

Middle School Cross Country

Meet at Telstar; Sept. 10 – The Telstar Middle School Cross Country Team competed in its first race of the season at Telstar against Spruce Mountain and St. Dominic's. Telstar won both the girls' and boys' races. Girls' Results: 3. Brooke Carson 18:43, 4. Mia Shifrin 19:04, 5. Izzy Chase 19:26, 7. Erin Childs 21:27, Brynne Speakman 21:28. Boys' Results: 2. Ben Alford 15:05, 4. Ryan Beckerman 15:22, 7. Jarrett Bean 18:34, 8. Gaelen Boyle-Wight 20:44, 11. McKinley Braley 20:57. – Coach Southam

Oxford County Republicans meet

Republicans from western and southern Maine attended, and thoroughly enjoyed, an Oxford County Republican fundraiser at 243 King Street, Oxford, on the evening of Tuesday, Sept. 10.

Despite the threat of rain, the mood of the crowd was sunny as all who attended were delighted with the sharp, yet politically persuasive, remarks of Gov. Paul R. LePage, the event's guest speaker. The ever-charming First Lady was also in attendance and delighted everyone with whom she spoke.

The Governor spoke about his accomplishments over the past two-plus years in office and what he would like to change over at least the upcoming sixteen months. The Governor also spoke about his belief that a "workfare" program is far superior to a welfare program for the State of Maine. The primary focus of his remarks to the crowd were about the economy of Maine and its impact on working people in the state, employment in Maine with young people leaving the state for any sort of opportunity, and energy costs and their relevance to job creation in Maine and personal and fiscal responsibility.

It was a pleasure to welcome the Governor to this corner of Maine and, with his attendance, Gov. Paul R. LePage indicated to all present that everyone must be part of his plan to put the state of Maine back on a track to good, sound, strong, responsible governance.

Skin cancer presentation

Alyssa Paetau, MD, general surgeon, will discuss "Recognizing Problem Skin Moles," on Thursday, Oct. 3, 2013 from 4:30 to 6 p.m. at the Bethel Congregational Church, 32 Church Street, Bethel. To Your Health of Western Mountains Senior College (WMSC) is holding this program in response to concerns of participants of past To Your Health programs.

Dr. Paetau said, "According to the Skin Care Foundation, one in five Americans will develop skin cancer in the course of a lifetime." She will talk about problem skin moles and explain what skin changes one should look for and what to report to the doctor. She will also discuss the most common types of skin cancer and answer questions on sunscreens, tanning beds, and skin self-exams.

Dr. Paetau joined the medical staff at Stephens Memorial Hospital and Western Maine Surgery in August, 2012. She received her medical degree at the Medical College of Georgia School of Medicine and completed her surgical residency at the Mayo Clinic.

To Your Health of WMSC sponsors this program as a community service with the collaboration of Bethel Family Health Center, MSAD 44/Continuing Education, and Maine Health Learning Resource Center of SMH. The public is invited and admission is free. Light refreshments available.

Future programs in this year's To Your Health series include: "How to Keep the Holidays Happy: Managing the Holiday Blues," Nov. 7, 2013; "Fat Facts About Your Blood Chemistry and What You Can Do About It," Feb. 6, 2014; "Spring into Spring with Colorful Foods," March 6, 2014; and "From Sneezes to Kegels – Issues with Urinary-Gyn Health," April 3, 2014. All programs are scheduled at the Bethel Congregational Church from 4:30 to 6 p.m.

Obituaries

MARY V. F. STONE

Mary Veronica Fanning Stone, relict of Dr. Anthony Robert Stone (1918-1982), departed this life on July 8, 2013 in the belief and hope of a sure and certain Resurrection.

Mary was born in Providence, R.I., on July 21, 1919, the daughter of John and Mary (Sullivan) Fanning and died 13 days shy of her 94th birthday at West Paris, Maine.

Mary spent her formative years at the Fanning Home on Fanning Lane in Smithfield, R.I. She was a 1937 graduate of St. Xavier's Academy. She held a BS in Education, Advanced degrees in early and young Childhood Education. For nearly 45 years, Mary was a respected and innovative educator in the Rhode Island and Maryland school systems. She retired from teaching in 1973.

Mary married then Captain Anthony Robert del Sasso Stone, U.S. Army Medical Corp, later Dr. Tony Stone. They had two children, the late Anthony Robert "Bob" Stone, Jr. (1946-2008), and Mary-Ann Stone Price Owen, widow of Terry Owen of Austin, Texas. Mary had one granddaughter, Johnnie Ann "Cissy" Price of Austin, Texas.

Following Mary's retirement in 1973, and Tony's, from Johns Hopkins Medical School, they moved to Greenwood, Maine, where they had been summer residents since 1947, the year they built their beloved cottage on Twitchell Pond. In 1974, Tony and Mary bought the Lester Bickford House on the Knoll Road in Locke Mills; it remained their home throughout their lives. The Knoll Road house was a beehive of activity from the start; Tony ran a very busy and heavily sought-after Marriage and Family Counseling practice. Not to be outdone, Mary undertook what she knew best educating, mentoring and the tutoring of numerous children in Districts 17 and 44. Not only did she volunteer with adult literacy programs, she mentored many gifted and talented children, assisting them in understanding and nurturing their several gifts. Tony and Mary were elevating the aspirations of many children from families around here -- long before anyone mentioned it was fashionable for a community to do so.

Tony and Mary still took time for the small pleasures of a life: friends, fishing and Mary with her emerging artist talents as a pen and ink sketch artist as well as a noted and award-winning water colourist.

Mary was involved in the Mt. Abram Fish and Game Association as the long-time and last secretary. She was instrumental in the establishment of the Mt. Abram Fish and Game Scholarship Award still given at Telstar High School Graduation each year. She was a member of the Greenwood Fire Department Ladies Auxiliary, and the Ladies Auxiliary of the Jackson-Silver Post in Greenwood.

Dr. Stone died very suddenly at home on the morning of March 27, 1982. Mary ever the onward and upward type shifted gears, as she said, and moved forward as Tony would have wanted. Mary lived another wonderful 31 years in the close company of family, friends that she cherished and her special Twitchell Pond companion in late years Wilfred "Will" Coolidge of Bethel.

Her love of learning and gracious art of living was reflected in her care of and concern for her elderly neighborhood ladies. Tony used to remark often she had a better unpaid family practice than he did as the Greenwood Widow's Therapist. Mary was deeply involved and loved her position as long-time Secretary of the Locke's Mills Union Church Ladies Circle, out lasting all the original members of the Circle save one. She was ever mindful of the needs of others, and ready to lend a hand always quietly and never boastful. Often the many acts of kindness extended to the greater community were not even known to the recipient. Many a child had school clothes, school supplies, and even help with college education. This was not a hobby for Mary, but her mission following a life of public service in education. Always a Hostess with the Mostess, Mary had a knack for a good party, rich with food, music, flowing beverage and conversation of the highest level. Let there be no mistake, she nor the "Doctor" were ever members of the Greenwood Temperance Society!! Her home was always open day or night to friend or stranger alike. She had a plaque of St. Patrick on her kitchen wall that said: "There are no Strangers Here, Only Friends that have not Met." Mary was true to the conviction of her faith, as she saw it, fulfilled in her duty. Always devout, humble and charitable to the very end.

Mary is survived by her daughter, MaryAnn Stone Price Owen, the widow of Terry Owen of Austin, Texas and granddaughter, Johnnie Ann Price "Cissy" of Austin, Tex.; her brother, John Fanning and wife Avis, their children, Kathy and husband Bill of Rhode Island and their children and grandchildren and nephew Johnny Fanning of Rhode Island; and Sheila Fanning Oceau and husband of Gloucester, R.I. and their children Kyle and Leah; niece, Sheila and family in Florida; niece, Marguerite Guiliano Rhodes and husband Dusty of California; nephew, Vincent J Guiliano and family of Rhode Island; nephew, Laurence Sasso of Smithfield, R.I. She is also survived by her sister-in-law, Phyllis (Mrs. Laurence Sasso, Sr. of Smithfield). Mary was predeceased by her husband Tony; son Robert, sister Margaret Fanning Guiliano of Rhode Island; and brother, Dan Fanning of Vermont.

Her loss is mourned by the many children (now adults) of the Knoll neighborhood: Stephanie Fuller Wardwell, and her sister Shannon, Nancy Melville Snyder, Steve Seames and Sue Seames Young. Special longstanding friends Munroe Holley and grown children Robert and Scott of Bel Air, Md., Joe McCluskey and family of Florida always had a special place in Mary's Heart.

Well done, good and faithful Servant, enter now into the Kingdom of God!

Burial will be private with honorary pallbearers the Brethren of Jefferson Masonic Lodge 100, of which Doc Stone was a member. Family and friends are invited to join in the Rite of Christian Burial at the Locke's Mills Union Church in Locke's Mills Village at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of Sunday, Sept. 29. Memorial remembrances may be directed to the Union Church of Locke's Mills or the Greenwood Fire Department in care of the Mary Fanning Stone Fund, P.O. Box 734, Bethel, Maine 04217-0734. For more information one may call Bethel: 207-824-3393.

NORMAN P. FITCH

Norman ("Norm") Porter Fitch of North Yarmouth and formerly of Medfield, Mass., passed away peacefully at the Hospice Center of Charleston in Mt. Pleasant, S.C., on Sept. 5, 2013.

Norman was born in Cambridge, Mass., on March 26, 1935. He attended schools in Auburndale and Westminster School in Simsbury, Conn. (1951-1954) and served in the United States Army from 1956 to 1959. In the Army, Norm was a Specialist Four stationed in Panama.

Norm and Sandy settled in Medfield, Mass., where they raised their family. Norm spent his professional life working as a salesman for the Foxboro Company.

Norm loved the outdoors and sports, especially skiing. He and Sandy bought a family camp (the "Cat's Meow") on South Pond in Greenwood in 1964, to be nearer to the lakes and ski slopes of Maine. Norm taught his own children how to ski and eventually joined the Mt. Abram Ski School, became a certified member of the Professional Ski Instructors of America, and taught for more than 20 years at both Mt. Abram and Sunday River. Norm and Sandy were fixtures on the slopes of Mt. Abram, where he was fondly known as "Captain Video" to many generations of avid skiers. Norm also worked in the ski rental shops at both areas. Sandy was a volunteer member of the ski patrol at Mt. Abram.

Norm also was an avid tennis player and golfer. A member of the Longwood Cricket Club in Chestnut Hill, Mass. from 1954 to until he moved to Maine, Norm was a United States Tennis Association Certified Umpire. In Maine, Norm played golf as a member of Val Halla's Twilight League for many years and worked as a groundskeeper for over 15 years at Falmouth Country Club and then at Toddy Brook Golf Course.

Norm was an active member of the Lions Club in both Medfield and North Yarmouth.
